Everybody's Business!

A practical resource for including disabled children in play, childcare and leisure settings

The aim of this publication is to provide a practical resource book that can be used by any play, childcare or leisure setting to include any child. Each section outlines the essential elements of good practice and contains examples which can be photocopied and adapted. It also includes signposts to other relevant organisations, publications, websites and resources which we hope you will find useful. We hope this publication will either encourage you to begin that process or move on from where you are while providing you with some practical tips and tools to make it happen.
